

LIFESTYLE / RESTAURANTS

Valentine's Day restaurants: Picks for Long Island's most romantic eateries

By Newsday Food Staff

Updated February 10, 2018 7:20 AM

Gatsby's Landing

Gatsby's Landing (1362 Old Northern Blvd., Roslyn): If you, like Jay Gatsby, are pulling out all stops for your one true love, make a reservation at Glenn and Danai Falcone's Gatsby's Landing. The cozy, intimate dining room, painted royal blue and shimmering with help from a few elegant chandeliers, is full of North Shore glamour. The restaurant, which tips its hat to the legendary F. Scott Fitzgerald masterpiece, is offering some Valentine's Day chef specials along with its a la carte menu: shellfish ricotta ravioli with saffron and bottarga, tomahawk steak for two, and Long Island fluke with lemongrass broth and miso bok choy. More info: 516-277-2318, gatsbyslanding.com

Photo Credit: Daniel Brennan

Burrata with black plum compote, mint and ale bread crostini at Gatsby's Landing in Roslyn.